Counseling Contract

Thank you for selecting me to meet your counseling needs. It is a privilege to serve you and I will do all I can to help with whatever need you have and to provide the highest quality of service. In order to better serve you the following information is being provided. Please examine it carefully. I will be happy to answer any questions regarding items for which you need additional clarification.

Please initial all sections below to which you agree. I will go over this contract with you verbally at the beginning of our initial session.

___ The Therapy Process: I use a variety of treatment approaches in order to best help you reach your goals. Change can occur through working on one's thinking, actions, environment, and spiritual condition. Changes can produce varying results and it is necessary to recognize that as one struggles with change, sometimes that struggle may lead one to go through a more difficult valley temporarily. It is very important that therapy continue until you have passed through that valley should it occur.

___ Confidentiality: I am dedicated to preserving the confidentiality and privacy of all my clients. However, some state and federal laws require that I disclose information in certain situations. Please review the following situations in which I must breach confidentiality:

- If I suspect child, elderly or disabled person abuse or neglect I am required to report that information to a state agency.
- When a client brings charges against the therapist.
- When a court orders the therapist's testimony of your records.
- I may sometimes talk with another professional about your case in order to get an objective point of view. In those instances your confidentiality will be maintained as no identifying information will be revealed, only the circumstances of your situation. Any professional with whom I consult will also be required by professional ethics to maintain your confidentiality. The exception will be that when I am out of town I may release your information to another therapist who will serve on call should an emergency arise. In this case a little confidential information will be released as is necessary.
- Sometimes, I hire an administrative asst., this asst. may see client health information and/or identifying data by default of their job roles and office tasks. This employee will sign a confidentiality agreement and is required to adhere to ethical guidelines to maintain your confidentiality.
- When I believe a client is a danger to themselves or others (suicidal or homicidal).

The laws and ethics of confidentiality are complicated. If you have special or unusual concerns, an attorney is recommended for legal advice.

___ Treatment of Minors: Persons under the age of 18 must have permission of the parent or legal guardian to receive therapeutic services. Parents will be involved in treatment as I deem necessary while maintaining the confidentiality of the client except in cases of dangerous drug use, suicidal ideation or running away. In cases of divorce, I will want to involve both parents unless rights have been severed for one or it is otherwise not feasible to do so.

I will not serve as a witness in custody disputes or provide records for such matters. I ask you to agree to accept this policy. If you go to court you will need to receive an evaluation from another professional for those involved. I will provide a summary, if necessary, but not actual records to the court. Charge for this service will be $80 per hour of preparation must be paid in advance.

If required to attend court proceedings the fee will be $100 per hour with one hour payable in advance. The charge can be avoided if cancellation is made one week in advance.

___ Subpoenas: If your records are requested through subpoena, you will be notified in writing and provided with a copy of the subpoena. You must then provide the therapist with a written objection to the subpoena or indicate that an objection will be filed with the court (with a copy to the therapist). It is the client's responsibility to file this with the court within the time frame legally allowed.

___ Appointments: Counseling sessions are 45-60 minutes and include the time needed to schedule another appointment and make payment. Due to the difficulty of scheduling missed or cancelled appointments, 24 hours notice must be given in order to avoid being charged for the missed session. Bad weather, illness, and unavoidable family concerns are the exception. If you cancel three appointments, we will discuss issues that may indicate the need for another therapeutic plan.

___ Fee Policy: The standard fee per session is $120 per session. I do offer a financial hardship policy for clients in need of assistance. Please ask for an application for financial assistance if you need one. The agreed upon rate for your session is $_____ per session. I take debit or credit cards only. I will need your card information on file and your card is subject to being billed for no shows, same day cancellations, and phone calls over ten minutes. Three sessions without payment will cancel future sessions until the account is paid in full.

___ Insurance: I do not accept insurance, however, if you belong to a plan that pays for out of network services, documentation will be provided in order for you to request reimbursement.

___ Level of Care: My clinical practice has limitations for provision of care in some circumstances. For example, I do not have the ability to return or answer phone calls 24 hours a day, like some larger agencies might. If at any time during treatment I determine you can be better served by a higher level of care or more specialized treatment, I will provide referral options with the ability to serve you better. Your best care is my highest priority.

___ Consultation: If you could benefit from a treatment I cannot provide, I will help you get it. You have a right to ask about such other treatments, their risks, and benefits. I will fully discuss the reasons for any additional recommendations I have so you can decide what is best.

___ Communication: Sending information through texting and email are not a safe means of communication because there is not proper means for assuring the confidentiality of this information. For the protection of your confidentiality, I will not utilize the methods of texting or email with clients. Please communicate with me by telephone or in person to assure that your personal information is kept confidential and is responded to in a therapeutic manner.

___ I grant therapist permission to communicate via texts and/or emails only for the use of scheduling and canceling appointments.

___ I decline permission for therapist to send texts and/or emails for the use of scheduling or canceling appointments. I understand I will need to contact therapist via phone call only if I initial here.

___ I acknowledge that I have received a copy of the HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices.
